National Aerospace Laboratories (NAL) is a premier research laboratory under the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR). In addition to many Research, Development and Technology Programmes in Aerospace, NAL is actively involved in supporting the National Aerospace Programmes of ADA, DRDO, ISRO, HAL and IAF. NAL is also exploiting several aerospace technologies into spin-off industrial applications. It has excellent facilities in all the aerospace disciplines.

NAL is currently working on many time bound aerospace projects of National importance. In order to execute these projects successfully, NAL is looking for Project Assistants in various disciplines as per requirement. Interested candidates may apply online at any point of time, valid for a year. Based on the requirements the candidates who have applied online till date would be considered.

The Project Assistants will be paid consolidated monthly remuneration as indicated below:
