

Dr. VPS Naidu obtained M.E in Medical electronics from Gundy College of Engineering, Anna University Chennai and PhD from University of Mysore, Mysore in board of studies, Electronics. He is working at Multi sensor data fusion lab, CSIR - National Aerospace Laboratories, Bangalore as a Scientist-F and a Professor at Academic council of Scientific and Innovative Research (AcSIR). His research interests are: Multi Sensor Data Fusion, Digital Signal & Image processing, Condition Monitoring and Enhanced Flight Vision System. He received nine awards for his research contribution. He has more than 140 papers and 115 technical reports. He had given 46 invited talks at different forums. He is actively involved in student project programme organized by Karnataka state council for science and technology (KSCST) from 2007-21. Organizing committee member in Aerolympics from 2012-2019. He is a fellow of IETE, IE(I), CET and AeSI. He is a nodal officer for JIGYASA (Scientist–student interaction programme). He had contributed to sixteen national projects.